LISTEN GOOD . . . . . George Young

Such busy times in the Twins. I can't recall any time in the past when we have had the chance to see as many "name" acts as the first six months of '71. If the bread holds out, you're bound to see some of your favorites. Strange, but true, most of the crowds are good, in spite of the bad economy and usually pretty steep ticket prices.

Had a most interesting chat with Rod McKuen prior to his concert. His own man. He said it, and he really is. Nothing plastic here; says and does pretty much his own thing; and, unlike so many, is not particularly a rebel and never seems to offend. Just says his thing and if you disagree, "too damn bad." (His words). One has to wonder if he would still be the same if he were Mr. Average American, struggling along like the rest of us. I really think he would. A most interesting guy, and talented in so many areas. Classical music (the really heavy stuff), written by him, is soon to be released.

Nineteen thousand in the "Walk for Development" last year. More will take part this year (May 9th). Those that can't actively take part by walking, will hear progress reports on 'DGY. More on this next week.
