LISTEN GOOD by Bob Dayton

Hello Minneapolis, Hi St. Paul!

So long State Fair, Fat Lady, Two-Headed Cow, Ape Woman and Giant Loops Ride! I think if the audience could have arranged it, Neil Diamond would still be coming back for encores. What a second show! Speaking of shows, by the time you read this, The Jackson Five will have made their debut in the cities. It's only too bad it had to be on a school night, when the bulk of their fans had to get up early Thursday. This weekend I'm off to another great racing event at Donnybrooke, to see the Can-Am . . . always a lot of fun. If you go, look for us in the big Greyhound and say, "Hi WDGY!" On the Listen List, some more pictures of Bobby Dayton with the Van Dyke Kid on the 747 Northwest let us tour. Mama Mia! That'sa Some Spicy Meatball!

I guess this column would be incomplete without saying something nice about going back to school . . . so let's consider it incomplete.

Keep Calling!

Bob Dayton
