ALBUMS HEARD ON WDGY

"TAPROOT MANUSCRIPT" Neil Diamond
 "IF I COULD ONLY REMEMBER MY NAME" David Crosby

HEAVY TALK ON THE ALL NIGHT "LISTEN LINE" FOR 'LOVE STORY' MUSIC, MANCINI AND WILLIAMS.

By the way, at the age of 14:

GLEN CAMPBELL . . IN 10th GRADE, QUIT SCHOOL AND JOINED HIS UNCLE'S BAND.

SIMON & GARFUNKLE . . WERE TOGETHER, WRITING, SINGING AND WORKING GREENWICH VILLAGE.

JOHNNY CASH . . PICKED UP AND SANG TO HELP THE HUNGRY, POVERTY STRICKEN CASH CLAN.

JUDY COLLINS . . MADE HER DEBUT AS A CONCERT PIANIST.

JOE COCKER . . WENT AWOL FROM SCHOOL, SANG NIGHTS & WORKED DAYS AS A PIPEFITTERS HELPER.

Maybe life begins at 14?

WDGY'S 'WEEKEND' THING IS TOGETHER. THE REACTION IS A RESOUNDING 'WOW'. KEEP TALKING, WE HEAR YOU, WE CAN DIG IT. 'ELVIS-A LIVING LEGEND', PRODUCED BY JOHNNY CANTON WAS REALLY INTO IT. RIGHT ON JOHNNY.

THE 60's, THE 70's. Reverberating rock, reverberating change.

The hard rock groups are fragmenting, the banks of speakers and the walls of electric music are gentling to piano and acoustic guitar. The new sound is with JAMES TAYLOR. He is a brooding 22, has family riches, sings because, "I don't know how to talk". First album, 30 thousand copies sold. Second album, "SWEET BABY JAMES", 1,600,000 sold. Third album, "MUD SLIDE SLIM" due next month. A movie, "TWO-LANE BLACKTOP" due late spring. Keep talkin' James, we hear you.

By the way, I have a basic belief. "Do what you can with what you have"!

Peace,

King Michael
