LISTEN GOOD. by Charlie VanDyke

My thanks to George Young for sitting in while I was on vacation. After returning to Minnesota from a two-week vacation, I can only say we have the warmest people and the coldest weather around.

After a year off, I for one am glad to see the Rolling Stones back. "Brown Sugar" from their "Sticky Fingers" LP looks like a real monster. But I doubt that it will ever surpass "Satisfaction" which stayed #1 for nine weeks during the summer of 1965.

I think it's interesting to note that the music phenomenon known as the Beatles is still alive in four different men. Since their split, each has had a record in the top ten, including Ringo with "It Don't Come Easy".

I hope you've joined the Tooth Fairy Rangers. Dr. Armadingo, Nurse Durkin and TF send their warmest regards. If you'd like to join, send a card to: Fairy Rangers, WDG Radio, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55420.

My personal pick this week is "You've Got A Friend" by James Taylor. Another favorite is Carole King's "It's Too Late". Just think, in three months, it'll be winter again.
