LISTEN GOOD by Curtis J. Johnson

Hello der, guess who's back again and this time getting decked out for fall and winter? You probably wouldn't believe seersucker shorts, but nearly everything else is "IN" . . . as we heard last Wednesday night during "Fashion '71".

In the photos you see me picking out a few threads to keep the Winter in check . . . or plaids . . . whatever's right.

Mr. Gordy Bohn of Cedric's in the Cedarvale shopping center didn't have to convince me of the new styles for men . . . he just had to run a quick check on the note I wrote him to pay for the merchandise I grabbed off the hangers. Mr. Bohn also agreed to let me hang around the Cedarvale store and watch all the pretty lovelies come in and shop for the man . . . or men (for the greedy ones) in their lives. Never seen so many women interested in mens fashions before.

One thing I found, Cedric's is continually receiving more and more new styles, colors and fabrics . . . every day.

Eat your hearts out girls . . . men are becoming the fashion plates in todays fashion society. I wonder if this means that girls will be standing on the corner watching all the guys go by?

By the way, if you happen by a Cedrics store in the Twin Cities and happen to see me begging a clerk . . . loan me a couple till payday.

Until next time . . . may your double knits never crease.

Adios . . .

Curtis J. Johnson
